Every year Festivals & Events Ontario releases several publications showcasing your festivals and events. We need your help in making these publications more exciting, colourful, vibrant and, of course, successful. We are looking for both professional and amateur photographers to submit their original photos from Ontario based festivals and events to be used in these publications. The donation of your photos will help show everyone how great these events are-in turn promoting attendance!

IMAGE SPECIFICATIONS

For both covers or interior photos, we want you to submit shots that make a statement and truly capture the emotion and excitement conveyed by the people who attend all festivals and events across Ontario! This is your chance to make your festivals and events shine!
